BENSON TELLS OF LAXITY IN STATE PRISON

OUSTED OFFICIALS TESTIFY NEXT IN APPEAL CASE

Lansing, April 24 (AP)—Two of six former officials of the state prison of Southern Michigan appealing their dismissals to the state civil service commission tonight defended themselves on the witness stand as the "defense" began its innings.

Attorney General John R. Dethmers, who charged the officials with maladministration of the prison, rested his case this afternoon after six days of hearings.

Categorical denials of wrongdoings were sworn to by Richard T. Riley, former prison athletic director, and Walter L. Wilson, former chief guard.

Denies Being Drunk

Riley denied statements of Dethmers' witnesses that he attended a meeting in the prison at which "Purple Gangsters" were allowed, that he had been drunk in the prison, or that he had given liquor to inmates, that he was frequently absent from duty and that he gave an inmate an assignment for $10 and that he participated in the alleged "frameup" of a prison guard in 1941 by agreeing to meet an inmate and return him to prison after a "fake escape."

Wilson, an employee of the prison for 25 years, testified he allowed a visit within the prison between inmates and persons identified by Dethmers as "Purple Gangsters" including Mike Selik, convicted of conspiracy to murder the late Senator Warren E. Hooper.

"Wilson said that when the incident occurred he was in charge of the prison and believed he could supervise the visit better if it were conducted in his office."

Jackson Opens Defense

He said the visitors asked to see two inmates, Phillip and Ray Keywell, reputed gangsters, to bring them word of a brother wounded in the Pacific campaign. He denied charges that there was drinking in his office during the visit.

Dethmers contends he violated prison rules by allowing former inmates to visit within the prison without the warden's permission.

Stuart B. White, attorney for former Warden Harry H. Jackson, said he would open Jackson's defense tomorrow morning.

Rebuttal To Take Days
The others—former Deputy Warden George L. Francis, former Records Clerk H. C. Watson, and former inmate Accountant Joseph G. Poirier, will present their cases later. D. C. Pettit, former assistant deputy warden who was dismissed with the others, withdrew his appeal before the hearing started.

The appellants said they expected to take "several days" in presenting witnesses and records to rebut charges that the prison administration was lax, and that "malodorous conditions" were permitted to exist within the prison.

Testimony of Acting Warden Ralph E. Benson that he found lax administration when he took control of the prison last July ended the state's case, which took six days to present. Benson was formerly warden at the Marquette Branch prison.

Guns In Bad Shape
Benson, describing changes which he had ordered in the prison administration, said that:

1.—A survey of the prison arsenal showed a considerable number of prison guns away from the institution and most of the rifles

Cigarette Price Raise Is Announced By OPA

Washington, April 24 (AP)—OPA tonight announced an increase in retail price ceilings for multiple pack, carton and vending machine sales of cigarettes.

The increases, granted because of a jump in manufacturing costs, are:

A half cent a pack on sales of two packs, four, six and so on.

One cent a pack on vending machine sales.

Five cents on a carton of ten packs.

There will be no increase, OPA said, for single packs.

The half cent multiple pack increase applies wherever cut-rate prices for their sales are in effect.

INDUSTRY FEELS IRON ORE TIEUP

Chief Of CIO Joins In Attempt To Settle Peninsula Strike

Washington, April 24 (AP)—CIO chief Philip Murray agreed today to meet with operators of Upper Michigan iron mines in an attempt to settle the 76-day old strike.

Edgar L. Warren, chief of the U. S. Conciliation Service, said he has scheduled a union-management conference Monday and invited representatives of idle ore mines in three states to attend.

An estimated 11,000 miners in Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin walked out Feb. 8 in a demand for an 18½ cent hourly wage increase.

Among the mines affected were 13 in Michigan where an estimated 8,000 employees went on strike. They are members of the CIO United Steel Workers.

In calling the conference to discuss the wage dispute, Warren said the nation's reconversion program is being delayed by the long strike.

The operators offered the miners a wage increase of 10 cents hourly. The average hourly wage in the mines, the union said, is about $1.

Plane Trip Fails To Save Baby With Blocked Stomach

Detroit, April 24 (AP)—Sheryl Beth Cannell, one-day old baby flown here in an oxygen tank for an operation in an effort to save her life, died tonight immediately following the operation.

Dr. Conrad Lamb performed a delicate operation on the child following a trip here from Rockford, Ill., on a Pennsylvania Central airliner.

The baby, born Tuesday at St. Anthony's hospital in Rockford, had an incomplete entrance to her stomach which prevented her from taking nourishment.

Dr. Lamb was one of eight doctors in the county familiar with the technique required for the operation. He explained the child had no connection between the esophagus and the stomach and that it was necessary to attempt to "hook things up."

The operation has been performed only a few times in the past. Dr. Lamb said.

Accompanied by a nurse, the child was rushed to Henry Ford hospital immediately upon arrival here. The father, Robert Cannell, is a farmer in Rockford.

BENEFITS VOTED TO STRIKE-IDLE

Jobless Pay Starts With New Contract Date, Commission Rules

Detroit, April 24 (AP)—The Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission ruled today that General Motors Corporation employees affected by unemployment compensation benefits from the date of ratification of their new contract until their return to work.

The MUCC's decision, however, is subject to a 15-day period during which employers may file objection.

Benefits, the commission held, should start on the calendar week following the week in which the contract was ratified locally. Walter P. Reuther, then UAW-CIO vice-president, notified GM last March 19 that a sufficient number of locals had ratified the contract to assure its formal acceptance.

A worker may draw a maximum of $20 a week plus $2 for each child under the MUCC plan. Payments are based partly on length of service.

The benefit payment plan fund is made up by contributions from employers on a fixed formula. Payments to the fund by employers are proportioned partially on the basis of the number of their idle employees.

Mother Bound Over For Drowning Baby Girl, 4, In Bathtub

Detroit, April 24 (AP)—Mrs. Dorothy Berg, 32, was bound over for trial on first degree murder charges in the bathtub drowning of her four-year-old daughter, Anita, following an examination in justice of the peace court in suburban Dearborn today.

The drowning occurred in Mrs. Berg's home on April 2. She is the wife of Hagbard Berg, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Berg did not take the stand during the hearing, but, sitting with her husband, broke into loud sobs as the transcript of her statement to police was read into the record.

After the child's death, Mrs. Berg was removed to a hospital for treatment as a result of an overdose of sleeping tablets. Her husband told police she previously had been treated for a nervous disorder.

Ghost Of Mussolini Eludes Po's Police

Milan, April 24 (AP)—An anonymous telephone caller today declared the stolen body of Benito Mussolini had been taken south across the Po river and police guarded roads to prevent the dictator's remains from being brought to Rome.

(A Milan dispatch to Il Giornale Della Sera of Rome said Mussolini's body had been reburied at the village of Predappio, where he was born in 1883. Predappio is near Forlì, below the Po near the Adriatic coast 160 miles southeast of Milan and a like distance north of Rome.)

Authorities intensified their search for the persons who dug Mussolini's body from its unmarked grave here Monday night. Press reports said a note was found at the grave signed by the "Democratic Fascist Party" declaring the corpse was taken to

SPANISH CASE DISCUSSED BY U.N. DELEGATES

INVESTIGATION OF FRANCO REGIME PREDICTED

BY LARRY HAUCK

New York, April 24 (AP)—United Nations delegates conferred in hotel rooms today in efforts to chart a smooth course on the controversial Spanish question, with indications pointing to eventual approval of the Australian proposal for a thorough investigation of the Franco regime.

Persons close to the delegates saw many problems to be ironed out in connection with such an inquiry and predicted another drawn out discussion when the security council reconvenes at 3 p. m. (EST) tomorrow.

More Facts Wanted

One of the major questions posed was the power of the proposed five-man committee. Observers wondered whether they would have the full right to subpoena documents, delve into files of member nations and generally command enough authority to have sufficient material on hand for their report by the May 17 deadline.

The early Franco invitation was extended only to council members having diplomatic relations with his government. Madrid's adherence to such a stand would ban a majority of the council.

Delegate Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., standing on the United States pony of seeking all the facts, was reported ready to back the plan of the Australian delegate, Col. W. R. Hodgson, on condition that it be amended and clarified. Stettinius was expected to take the floor early in the session.

Speculation centered around the makeup of such a body, with some sources agreeing that Australia and Poland, which brought the original demand for a worldwide rupture of relations with Spain, would be assured of seats out of diplomatic courtesy. The other three places presumably would go to big powers, probably including the United States and Russia.

Gromyko Is Puzzle

As the council turned to its latest problem, speculation persisted on the meaning of Andrei A. Gromyko's closing statement on the Iranian question, made after he was voted down 8 to 3 on his demand that the item be stricken from the agenda.

After declaring that the decision was contrary to the charter, the Soviet delegate said:

"The Soviet delegation is, therefore, not able to participate in the discussion of the Iranian question in the security council."

The item is slated to come up again May 6, when Russia and Iran have been instructed to report to the council on whether Red troops have been evacuated from Iran as promised.

Two Plants Leased By Timken-Detroit

Detroit, April 24 (AP)—The Timken-Detroit Axle Company announced today the leasing from the government of two new manufacturing plants, one located near its main plant in Detroit and the other in Melvindale, Mich.

The company said between 1,200 and 1,400 workers will be employed in the two plants when full production is attained and that its overall manufacturing floor space will be increased by more than 15 per cent. The company manufactures axles and brakes for commercial vehicles.

More Bread Granted Hungry; Not Enough Yet, Says LaGuardia

Washington, April 24 (AP)—The combined food board today provided thicker bread slices for famine-threatened countries fed by UNRRA, but Director General Fiorello H. La Guardia said the allowance still was far short of "desperate needs."

The board, made up of members from the United States, Great Britain and Canada, increased UNRRA's April share of the world's pool of wheat and other cereals from 363,000 to 460,000 tons.

La Guardia, who had estimated the lowest needs of the hungry peoples fed by his agency at 700,000 tons, expressed disappointment at the board's decision, but said he was reconciled to the fact that supplies are not great enough to permit granting a larger share.

The day produced these other food developments:

1. A weather bureau report that rain is needed in some sections of the Great Plains wheat belt dimmed somewhat the agriculture department's April forecast that the crop would be a record-breaker.

2. The president of the Chicago Board of Trade, Harry C. Shaack, told the Senate agriculture committee that the government stepped into the black market when it offered a 30-cent per bushel bonus to get corn off farms for the famine relief program.

3. The government is planning to get back into the butter market in a week or so to buy a year's supply—60,000,000 pounds—for the armed services and military hospitals.

The weather bureau reports said that western Kansas, one of the richest wheat producing areas, needs rain badly and that conditions were similar in parts of Nebraska. More rain also will be needed soon in western Oklahoma, western Texas and New Mexico or the crop will deteriorate, the report said.

Shaack described the government's corn bonus as a "death-bed remedy," adopted after most of the corn reserve had disappeared.

The government's butter purchases this year will be less than one-fifth the 325,000,000 pounds it bought last year while the nation was still at war. It turned back 75,000,000 pounds of that supply when civilian stocks became very low.

Great Britain will supply 60,000 tons of the increased UNRRA allocation. This grain will be taken from 200,000 tons the British have offered to divert to needy areas from supplies they are scheduled to receive from Canada and other empire sources.

Canada will supply oats in a quantity equivalent, in food value, to 27,000 tons of wheat.

In addition, the British are negotiating a barley-wheat exchange with a third unnamed country which would make more than 10,000 more bushels of wheat available to UNRRA.

Countries which will receive the bulk of UNRRA wheat are Poland, Yugoslavia, Italy, Greece and Albania.

Several car loads of troops, answering a call for help from Sheriff Andrew Baird, reached the scene on the outskirts of Detroit after 14 automobiles had been damaged in a brief melee on a roadway leading to the plant.

Witnesses said that as non-striking supervisory and clerical workers drove up pickets massed on the road and started to pelt the machines. Windows were smashed and fenders dented. No one was reported injured. Fifty cars penetrated the picket line.

Ernest Wenigmann, plant manager, said aid was flung on his car as well as other automobiles. Sheriff Baird said his deputies were helpless against some 500 to 600 pickets.

About 800 production workers have been idle since April 2 in a strike by the CIO United Auto Workers Local 786. There are 250 non-strikers.

Purge Is Reported Of High Officials In Bank Of Japan

Tokyo, April 24 (AP)—A purge of high officials of the Bank of Japan was reported tonight by Kyodo News Agency.

Hit by the ouster based on Gen. Kato's Jan. 4 purge directive were Eiichi Araki, the bank's governor, and an undisclosed number of other officials found "undesirable" under terms of the directive.

Kyodo said the finance ministry would name a new governor tomorrow, and added that it was understood Hisato Ichimada, head of the bank's Osaka branch, would get the appointment.

Japanese political leaders continued to wrestle with the task of forming a coalition government to succeed the resigned Shidehara cabinet—a task complicated by the purge threat hanging over one of the principal candidates for the premiership.

The political negotiations were further complicated by a demand from the Social Democratic party that the new premier be chosen from its ranks.

The Liberals and Social Democrats have been trying to reach agreement on a coalition program to be presented to outgoing Premier Shidehara, president of the Progressive party, who hopes to succeed himself as head of the new government.

Detroit Admits Shooting Wife He Thought Was Untrue

Detroit, April 24 (AP)—John Lambides, 41, interrupted his murder trial today to plead guilty to a charge of second degree murder in the January 2 shooting of his wife, Kay, 26.

Lambides, who will be sentenced May 1, admitted he shot his wife, the mother of three children, when she came home late at night after what he suspected was a date with another man.

CHINESE REDS PROVE TO BE NO PUSHOVER

CONCESSIONS MADE TO COMMUNISTS BY GEN. CHIANG

BY HAROLD K. MILKS

Chungking, April 24 (AP)—Chiang Kai-shek made a major concession to the Communists today by postponing the national assembly, and he was reported ready to compromise as well on embattled Manchuria.

"The generalissimo appears to be in a mood for compromise," declared a source high in the Kuomintang (Chiang's party) who declined the use of his name. "I am very hopeful of getting this (Manchurian) situation settled soon."

The surprising show of Communist armed strength in Manchuria was given as one factor which prompted quick settlement. Seasoned government armies had expected the Communists to be a pushover.

One of the government's best armies, the First, apparently still was held up at Kungchuling, 36 miles southwest of Chungking, Manchuria's capital.

Marshall Uses Pressure
The generalissimo announced the government's decision to postpone the national assembly at a tea party given for leaders of the Communist and other minority parties.

Chiang announced the government would report on a new date later and that meanwhile the steering committee of the all-party political consultation conference would try to reach an agreement on all political issues.

General Marshall, special U. S. envoy to China, was reported reliably to be putting heavy pressure on Chiang and Gen. Chou En-Lai, the Communist negotiator, for a compromise.

A government spokesman said the delay in the assembly would not affect the removal of the government to Nanking, which is expected to be largely completed by the end of this week.

Moscow May Ease Terms On Finland

Helsinki, April 24 (AP)—A joint Finnish-Russian communique released late tonight said the Soviet Union "has considered it possible to free Finland from further restitution of property taken from Russia during the war."

It was further agreed, the communique added, that the Russians should obtain a concession on a power station on the Pasvik River near the Finnish-Norwegian border "for exploitation of the Petsamo nickel mines." This is the largest power station in the far north.

The communique was issued after the return of an official Finnish delegation headed by Premier Mauno Pekkala from a visit to Moscow.

The Union had agreed to send Finland 100,000 tons of cereals plus fertilizer and had promised to improve transport facilities within Finland.

WALKOUT ENDED BY EXPRESSMEN

Fact-Finding Board To Study Dispute Is Named By Truman

Washington, April 24 (AP)—President Truman acted today to avert a strike of 65,000 employees of the Railway Express Agency, Inc., by appointing a fact-finding board under the Railway Mediation Act.

George M. Harrison, president of the AFL Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, said shortly afterward in Cincinnati that he had asked members of his union not to strike pending receipt of the board's findings.

Harrison said the telegraphed request went out to all union locals except at Detroit.

The union had called a nationwide strike of express workers for Friday morning and the New York local ordered a walkout there for tomorrow morning.

The president issued an executive order establishing the board and directing it to report to him within 30 days but deferred appointment of its members. For another 30 days after the report is submitted, no change is to be made in conditions which gave rise to the dispute except by mutual agreement.

The order set forth that the dispute "threatens substantially to interrupt interstate commerce to a degree such as to deprive a large section of the country of transportation service."

German Time Bomb Buried In London Park Starts Ticking

London, April 24 (AP)—A 1,000-pound unexploded German time bomb buried a few hundred yards from Buckingham Palace in St. James park began ticking tonight and disposal squads said it might detonate at any moment.

The Mall was closed to traffic and a police cordon was posted around the area. Buckingham Palace is the London residence of the British royal family.

The windows in the palace were opened as a precaution against the blast.

King George VI, Queen Elizabeth and the two princesses remained at Windsor Castle outside London where they went for the Easter holiday.

Members of the singing group were entertained after the concert by the Munising Lions' club at a lunch served by the Mather high school Home-ec class in the school club room. There the group sang informally two numbers, the Cosack song and "Remember Now Thy Creator," at the request of Lions club members.

Best War Memorial I Know

There's an old war memorial in our town that I like to stop and look at now and then.

Back in 1865, folks gathered up all the bitter relics of battle and put them in a pile: cannon, battered rifles, broken swords, and rusted bayonets. Some of them from our side, some captured from the enemy.

They melted them down, and from this litter of war sprung a monument to friendship, tolerance and understanding—a promise that the bitterness and hatred were forgotten.

Mrs. Hulda Stine left Monday for St. Ignace, where she is going to spend a week visiting Mrs. G. Sloan.

William Orava of AuTrain, spent Easter Sunday visiting at the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Orava.

Services Largely Attended
Both the Sunrise services held at 7 a. m. and the afternoon services at the Methodist church were very largely attended on Easter. At the baptismal services there were six babies baptized by Rev. Story. After the services a lunch of coffee and doughnuts was served in the church parlors by the Ladies Aid.

Food Supply Gives Problem To Resorts

Marquette—Government officials and others responsible for distribution and rationing of food should consider the tourist trade problem which resort and summer hotel operators will face this summer, George E. Bishop, secretary-manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, said today.

During the summer months, Bishop said, the population of towns which cater to tourists increases four-fold. In normal times, this creates no problems, but with wartime controls over some foods still in effect, diversion of these foods will be needed to match the wholesale shift of population from cities to vacation spots.

"Food should be made available to people where they will be," he stated, "and during the summer tourists who come to the Upper Peninsula will expect to receive food from U. P. merchants—not from wholesalers and retailers in their home towns.

"This is a real problem that should not be overlooked by those responsible for the rationing and distribution of food. Local quotas based on resident population will not be sufficient to meet the demand, which, judging by the number of inquiries we have received, will be larger than in any previous year."

Chrysler Discharge Of Workers At 65 Protested By Union

Chicago, April 24 (AP)—The executive board of the CIO United Auto Workers asserted today the Chrysler corporation has "arbitrarily" imposed a policy of discharging workers who have reached 65 years of age, and authorized a strike if the company attempts to put the policy into effect.

The board declared that "if the Chrysler Corporation is permitted to impose this policy... there is no doubt but that the employer generally in the automobile industry will follow the same course."

Chrysler employs some 65,000 workers in ten plants. In Detroit, Chrysler spokesmen declined to comment on the union action.

A resolution adopted by the executive board in session here called for the use of "full economic sanctions and the weight of the union by authorizing a strike... In the event the Chrysler Corporation arbitrarily discharges its employees merely because an employee reaches the age of 65."

Artillery Blasts Prison Walls In Milan Inmate Riot

Milan, April 24 (AP)—Twenty-five hundred rioting convicts at San Vittore prison surrendered meekly today after a tank-led artillery assault blasted holes in the prison walls on the expiration of a police ultimatum.

The last small group was led out through the ruined wall by Erzio Barbieri, reported leader of the revolt who had boasted earlier that he and a handful of followers would fight to the death.

The siege, which began Easter Sunday, cost eight lives—six prisoners and two policemen. The more than 30 guards held by the prisoners as hostages since the outbreak of the riots were freed without injury.

About 25 persons were wounded in the four days of fighting, allied military police said. One of the dead, authorities reported, was a convict killed by his fellow prisoners shortly after the rioting began.

The tower of the gloomy, fortress-like prison was half-destroyed by shell fire. The tanks and artillery went into action a few minutes after 3:30 p. m., when no answer was received to the police surrender ultimatum.

Launched in 1894, the Dirigo was the first all-steel sailing ship.

Marquette Adopts City Manager Plan

Marquette.—By unanimous vote the commission acted to consolidate all departments and adopt the city manager form of administration for Marquette.

The change from a modified form of commission supervision of the city's affairs and limited management, brought about by passing an amendment to the administrative code, is effective now, but some phases—including actual consolidation—must await appointment of a city manager before they are carried out.

The commissioners acted under power vested in them by the city charter to consolidate departments by affirmative vote of four members, carrying through the process begun in 1944 when a limited form of management covering the utilities and the public works department was adopted. It was, however, the first really significant change since electors approved commission government here 33 years ago.

Resort Advertising On Book Matches
Marquette—Arrangements have been made by the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau with the Universal Match Co., of Detroit, for the purchase of a million matches to advertise the tourist industry of Northern Michigan.

The match covers will bear the advertising byline of the Development Bureau and the all-Michigan emblem, as well as private advertising of resorts and hotels with which to procure the matches at reasonable rates.

"The use of matches," Bureau Secretary-Manager, George E. Bishop, said in announcing the advertising scheme, "has come to be a very valuable form of advertising as well as a manifestation of courtesy and service. We believe this is an opportunity for resort operators to have their own advertising on their own matches which distributed this season, will be a big help in procuring business for future years."

BENSON TELLS OF LAXITY IN STATE PRISON

inadequate, too old or in poor condition.

2—He found that men being released from prison were turned loose in the city of Jackson rather than being placed on a train or bus with their ticket purchased to their home, as the state law provides.

3—A general "shakedown" of the prison yielded a "great deal of knives, home made weapons and contraband."

4—He ordered temporary guard posts at danger spots where a survey showed the majority of the over-the-wall escapes occurred, and removed large trees which shielded the guard posts from a full view of some walls.

5—He ordered officers given master keys to inmates lockers. "Many inmates had personal lockers in their cells and the officers had to hunt up the inmate to get his keys to search his belongings."

6—He removed inmates from assignments where they had access to prison records, eliminated a large number of night assignments, and instituted direct control by prison officials over cell transfers, the assignment of vehicles, the purchase of supplies for the inmate stores, straggling in the yard, and free movement within the prison.

7—He found no rules posted for the guidance of guards.

Benson testified on cross examination that "there were many good things about the prison—many good, capable employees; definite progress in the schools, a good farm program, and the industries were in good shape."

The commission refused to allow the introduction of 31 volumes of transcript of Dethmers' prison investigation, but admitted statements made to the investigators by the ousted officials on the condition that "none will be used in regard to any appellant but the one making the statement."

BONIFAS PLANT CHANGES HANDS

Lake Linden Mill Will Be In Charge Of Ray Hill

Houghton—The Bonifas-Gorman plant in Lake Linden, idle for upwards of a year, has been purchased by the Boehm-Madisen Lumber company of Milwaukee, which has taken possession and is repairing and improving the mill. The deal includes all buildings and equipment and timber holdings on approximately 30,000 acres of land located mainly north and east of Lake Linden. While much of the land is either cut-over or semi-cut, the new concern has in process the acquisition of other lands for the purpose of guaranteeing a long life for the plant.

The Boehm-Madisen company made the purchase after disposing of its Lake Linden mill in Ontonagon county.

The new concern, known as the Lake Linden Lumber company, expects to cut from 35,000 to 40,000 feet of lumber daily and will employ approximately 175 men in its woods and plant operations. It will make not only rough-cut lumber but also will do planing, the finished product to be sold in the firm's yards in Milwaukee as well as locally.

The company is in a position to purchase logs of farmers and small loggers, paying ceiling prices.

Ray Hill, of Hancock, formerly of Escanaba, part owner in the new concern, will be in charge of the woods operations.

Resumption of activity at the plant is hailed by business men in the Torch Lake district for it promises to play an important part in the economic life of Lake Linden and Hubbell for many years.

During its heyday, the Bonifas company operated camps in the area between Lake Linden and Gay and also employed a comparatively large number of men in its plant here.

Develop Present City Airport, Col. Evans Urges City Officials

Continued development of the present city airport was recommended yesterday by Col. Floyd Evans, director of the Michigan board of aeronautics, to Mayor Marvin Coon and City Manager A. V. Aronson.

Col. Evans inspected the Escanaba city airport yesterday morning in company with the mayor, city engineer, Fred Sensiba, airport manager, and J. R. Richardson, chief engineer of the board of aeronautics. Also accompanying Col. Evans to Escanaba were William Hamelin, board of aeronautics engineer, and Harry Dalton of Little Rock, Ark., a friend of Evans.

Purpose of the visit by the director of the state board of aeronautics was to inspect present airport facilities and confer with city officials on their improvement as soon as possible.

The city is seeking to acquire about 1,700 acres of government-owned land north of the state fair grounds as a new airport site. The city bid of $39,100 for the property is now in the hands of RFC officials in Washington.

"A complete set of plans has been developed for the improvement of the present airport," Col. Evans said yesterday. "We went over those to determine how to make the most economic improvements. Until the new site is acquired, I think we should go ahead at the present airport."

"It appears that this site can be developed to meet all needed requirements. The present runways are 2,640 feet and can be extended to 2,700 feet, which with a northwest-southeast runway is what is needed," Col. Evans said. "It looks as if we could get 4,000 feet or more in runway length right here if that length becomes necessary."

The new airport site sought by the city council "would be ideal," said Col. Evans, if Escanaba, Gladstone and the county could cooperate in financing the development of the proposed airport. Its location between Escanaba and Gladstone would be an advantage "if the two cities would get together on the matter," he added.

There is immediate need for improvement at the present Escanaba city airport, and that work should be undertaken, Col. Evans continued. If the time comes that the proposed airport is developed, the present airport could be used for smaller private planes, which would reduce traffic at the proposed airport, he said.

Prospect of federal and state assistance in airport development is favorable, the aeronautics board director said. Passage of a federal aid bill, providing 100 million dollars a year for five years, is expected soon. The state holds one million dollars in escrow to assist in fund matching for airport development. Present financing plans are on a ratio of 50 per cent federal, 30 per cent state, and 20 per cent local participation.

Allocated according to formula, Delta county can expect approximately $8,000 in state aid the first year, and additional appropriations are hoped for. There is the question of spending state money for airports, which is to be decided by the state supreme court in a test suit. Col. Evans said, if the constitution needs revision, the question will be submitted to the voters in November, he declared.

Col. Evans and his party flew to Escanaba in a Cessna C-78, left here for Pelston, Cadillac and Lansing. Before coming to Escanaba they inspected airports at Sault Ste. Marie, Marquette and Iron Mountain.

SHOWDOWN WITH SOVIETS

THE meeting of foreign ministers of Russia, Britain, France and the United States, opening today in Paris, will serve either to weld the four big powers together for an effective settlement of the intricate peace problems in Europe or it will widen the breach that now exists between the wartime allies. Unfortunately there is rather slight cause for optimism.

The real issue at stake is Russia's determination to spread her influence over a greater portion of the European continent. Harmony can be attained only if Russia is willing to materially compromise her ambitions. In view of the Soviet attitude displayed thus far in postwar international affairs and particularly in Russia's position on matters before the United Nations security council, it is not likely that Russia is entering the conference in a conciliatory spirit.

Even at the risk of creating greater disunity between the major powers, it is well that the conference of foreign ministers is being held at this time. Failure to meet and discuss the problems, many of which are urgent, would serve only to postpone the inevitable showdown. Even worse, it would permit the perplexing problems of Europe to drift into a hopeless tangle.

Principally, the immediate problem confronting the foreign ministers is to find a basis for establishing peace treaties with the minor powers of the defeated Axis nations—Italy, the Balkan States and Finland. Unless the Big Four can reach an agreement in regard to these minor powers, it is certainly difficult to comprehend how they are going to settle the more important problem of working out a peace treaty affecting Germany.

MAY OFFER OPPORTUNITIES

THE proposed increase in railroad freight rates may offer new opportunities for Escanaba and other communities that seek industrial expansion in this postwar era.

If the increase goes through, manufacturers, distributors and retailers alike will face new problems, but they will also face new opportunities which can be exploited to their advantage. One logical step will be to look around for new producers and suppliers located closer to home.

The shorter the shipping distance, the less important freight charges become. If a furniture dealer, for example, can buy his wares from a manufacturer in his own state or county, he may be able to wipe out the increased costs created by a rate increase.

For the small manufacturer an increase in shipping rates may actually be a boon. The retailers and distributors in his area will be looking for producers nearer home who can supply them at a cost below that of the distant big fellow whose products have to pay a higher freight rate and must go up in cost. By the same token independent manufacturers may find it profitable to expand into new fields where potential markets will develop for a local supplier who doesn't exist at the moment.

PENSION PLANS FAVORED

ACTION taken recently by the Escanaba city council toward providing a pension system for municipal employees is in line with the trend throughout the country.

The International City Managers' association reports that more than 85 per cent of U. S. cities over 10,000 population now have retirement systems for some or all employees. State retirement systems providing for participation by municipal employees were created by legislation in 10 more states during 1945, bringing the total to 19.

Michigan's municipal employees' retirement plan, among those created last year, will start receiving employee contributions and paying pensions May 1. The legislature provided for operation of the system and creation of an administrative board when 10 local governments had applied for admission.

Railroads and other private corporations have had pension plans in force for many years, and their value is now generally recognized. The retirement systems assure security to aged workers after they have earned their right to a rest in their declining years. It is only right that workers in all fields enjoy the same advantages.

ADOPTS MANAGER PLAN

MARQUETTE joined the growing list of manager governed cities when the city commission on Monday night voted to adopt this modern form of municipal administration.

The transition from the commission to the manager system of government was comparatively easy for two years ago a limited form was adopted, when a manager was placed in charge of the utilities and public departments. As soon as a city manager is appointed, all municipal activities will be placed under one head.

In a public statement, Major James J. Beckman outlined the following advantages of the manager system:

Makes for better planning, for more efficient programming of municipal undertakings, and for improvement in personnel.

Fixes responsibility for financial management.

Frees individual commissions from administrative details and from trying to solve technical problems, and allows them to transfer their time and energies to matters of greater community importance.

Cuts red tape and makes for more direct and prompt service to the public.

Imposes on the commission collective responsibility for public administration.

The manager system has been found after years of experience to be an effective vehicle for efficient municipal administration. Cities like Escanaba, Sault Ste. Marie and others that have adopted it recommend it to other communities without hesitancy.

FASCIST DIE-HARDS

THE Fascist die-hards who stole the battered body of Benito Mussolini from an unmarked pauper's grave, where it was buried after Mussolini was executed by Italian partisans, are welcome to the carcass.

Mussolini will be forever remembered by the Italian people as the man who had a golden chance to make Italy an important power in the world but who muffed the chance and instead threw his country into an unpopular war, from which it emerged broken and beaten. A few cronies who profited by Mussolini's rule may mourn him but the millions who suffered under the heel of Il Duce's pompous boots scorn his memory. Few men in world history reached the low point in public damnation as did Benito Mussolini.

Fascists who prate about a triumphant parade through the streets of Italy on the battered bones of Il Duce are only talking through their hats. His bones serve only as a grim reminder to the people of Italy that it was this man who drove their country into oblivion.

FUTURE POSSIBILITIES

(Ironwood Globe)

There is no more ground for pessimism regarding the future of the Upper Peninsula than there is for doubt regarding the future of the United States, even though at times gloomy forebodings are expressed in some quarters where there ought to be the most active and zealous kind of boosting.

As long as the people of the United States have faith in their country's destiny as the "land of the free," and back up their faith with eternal vigilance to keep it that way, then there is every reason for having faith in the future of the Upper Peninsula. For Americans to have faith in their country means simply that they must have faith in themselves and not allow themselves to be led from the American way into the morass of regimentation and statism.

The people of the Upper Peninsula are a part of, and not apart from, this great country. The United States is still a young nation, still virile and strong and looking to the future with eager hope and courage. The Upper Peninsula is one of the youngest sections of this young country and it would be the extreme of shortsightedness for anyone to suggest that it already is entering on a barren old age.

The greatest need for the Upper Peninsula at present is more new industry, more agricultural development, and increased recreational development, all of which will spell greater employment and prosperity.

Time was when transportation and distance from metropolitan markets was regarded as a bar to industrial and economic development of this north country. That is no longer true, for everywhere in the nation transportation is improving and industries are largely decentralizing and becoming more diversified. What more logical site for industry now than the Upper Peninsula, where there is so much raw material and such an ideal environment for happy living?

What are the conditions for industry? Industry will remain, or establish itself, wherever it has access to raw materials and markets under conditions which permit it to operate at a profit on its investment. That is the basis on which the United States developed from a small group of colonial settlements on the Atlantic seaboard to become the greatest country in the world. Progress was inevitable because this was the land of opportunity and the people were proud of their country and believed in its future.

Research will develop means of utilizing a greater proportion of forest production and will find means of converting inferior species of woods into valuable and useful products. Vast resources of such materials are available.

The agricultural possibilities of the Peninsula have hardly been touched. Let alone realized. Dairying can be still further developed. New methods of handling and transporting perishable products open a vast new field for production of choice, premium quality small fruits, berries, and other produce. A broad new horizon beckons those who love the soil and are willing to work to reap its rewards.

The recreational possibilities have been envisioned by a few, but the "tourist industry" is only in its infancy. One need only ask the question, "Where is there a better place to spend a vacation than in the north woods?" and to remember that the Upper Peninsula is only one day's travel away from the 40 million people of the midwest.

These are only a few of the possibilities. If the people of the Peninsula have vision and faith, they can open the door to a greater future.

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—The events of the past 10 days may, in the light of history, take on far greater momentousness than we who live in this period of troubled transition can possibly appreciate.

The issue at stake may seem to have been larger than the OPA, than the draft, than any of the vexatious problems that pile upon us. Serious-minded men believe the issue is whether the American system of government by checks and balances is in fact workable. Nothing that has happened in the past fortnight has encouraged any optimism in this direction.

Harry Truman is not the first president to be confronted with the kind of stalemate which seems to make a mockery of order and progress. From 1930 to 1932, Herbert Hoover was a pathetic prisoner of defeat. True, Hoover appeared to be a victim of his own paralyzing fears. The steps he proposed to prevent depression from deepening into crisis were too often feeble and ineffectual.

—CASE OF IRRESPONSIBILITY—

Yet, even if he had had the most far-reaching program, the congress of that day would have blown it to bits. On one side of the aisle was a sullen Republican despotism long in power. On the other side was a new Democratic majority determined to make hay out of Hoover's troubles, which happened, also, to be the nation's troubles.

If you were compelled to explain the dilemma with one word, it might well be irresponsibility—party irresponsibility and individual irresponsibility. As one of the chief sufferers from this irresponsibility put it recently in private conversation, it sometimes seems that there are 96 different political parties in the senate and at least 400 different political parties in the House.

At one end of the political spectrum is Representative Rankin of Mississippi. No complicated explanation is necessary here. He is almost pure, unalloyed demagogue. The astonishing thing is that when he screams "Communist" about the OPA, so many members of the House heed his screams.

At the other end of the political spectrum is Senator Taft of Ohio, rich, respectable, high-minded. If you take the world as Senator Taft sees it, then everything he does seem clear, simple and inevitable. It is the world of the prosperous Taft law firm, the Taft school for boys, the comfortable world of the beginning of this century, when high-minded men were beginning to realize the need for reforms.

In Senator Taft's private office hangs a large picture of his father, William Howard Taft, when he was President. The jovial president, his face creased with a smile of enormous goodwill, is sitting in a barouche looking as though he hadn't a care in the world. That, you surmise, is about the date of Senator Taft's world.

Essentially, this is at the heart of the prolonged argument he had with Chester Bowles when the economic stabilizer came before the Senate Banking and Currency committee to urge extension of the OPA. Taft was insisting on the terms of his own personal world. Bowles was trying to argue that it was considerably later by the calendar of events.

—CREATES STALEMATE—

Between the Rankins and the Tafts—and the distance is very great—you have stalemate. It is the combination that produces the conditions of defeat and delay. It is the combination that makes us appear before the world so singularly helpless and divided.

Much has been said, some of it in this space, about President Truman's failure to exert "leadership." Certainly he has been timid and cautious, as is evidenced by a recent instance.

Word got around that Truman would oppose congressman Clarence Cannon of Missouri for re-election, since Cannon had done as much as anyone to hamstring his program. Cannon heard of this and sent an emissary to the White House. Word was returned that the President had no intention of opposing Cannon.

But whether any man in the White House could work with Congress to govern the country is the real question. Behind that is the question whether our system is workable at all except in times of great crisis. After midsummer of 1937, President Roosevelt, rated a "strong" president, could get next to nothing out of Congress. The steps he took toward preparedness, as the world storm gathered on the horizon, were necessarily tentative and halting. Not until the attack at Pearl Harbor—until the crisis was upon us—could government begin to function.

We Americans had better do some hard thinking on these underlying questions. They look to 1948 and beyond.

Some folks are never satisfied because the world is so full of a number of things—they can't have!

A Georgia woman reported to police that boys released five pet canaries from their cages. Call out the flying squad!

A style expert says a man can be well dressed with 14 suits. Hurray! Most of us are within about 13 of it!

The idea nowadays is to send stowaways back home without seeing a thing—except that they made a mistake.

Maybe Our Eyes Deceive Us

Good Morning!

By The Bugler

10 Years Ago—1936

YOUR HOME TOWN—There is no doubt that all of us have felt, at one time or another, considerable pride in our home town. And it must also be admitted that at times we have also apologized to visitors because of the appearance of certain sections of our city.

It has probably been the experience of others that, when guiding visitors around your town, you have avoided certain streets which were unattractive, chosen those which were attractive because the houses were painted, the yards well-groomed. There is a definite satisfaction in living in a community in which the people take pride in its appearance. It is not only pleasant to live in such a town, it is a distinct advantage to yourself and your children.

Escanaba, like every community, has its bright spots and also its areas which come close to what city planners call "blighted." Incidentally, about the only trouble with a "blighted" area is the lack of flowers, lawns, shrubs and trees—and the absence of orderly cleanliness.

WHERE YOU LIVE—An Escanaba woman writes: "We find your column interesting and feel that it has a far-reaching influence. The article on 'more manners' is very apropos, for one can often become disgusted with the manners of people attending plays and concerts—particularly the band concerts which are given here during the summer."

The enclosed clipping is interesting, I think, and if elaborated upon may prove a stimulus to beautifying or at least improving our city. With a little physical and mental application we could make Escanaba a far more attractive city, for what creates more happiness, for what creates more of a thrill than the cultivation of trees and flowers and gardens in general.

Yours truly
Mrs. F. M. Fernstrom

WHAT THEY SAY—The clipping enclosed by Mrs. Fernstrom is as follows:

"It takes brains to make a city beautiful. Psychologists E. L. Thorndike and Ella Woodyard compared the beauty of the churches, public buildings, houses and front yards in seven northern cities of the United States, with the qualities of intelligence, good citizenship, morale, character and other desirable personal qualities of people. They found the cities have a high average of beauty ranked higher in intelligence and other fine qualities than those in ugly cities. Even the children in the beautiful cities scored higher on intelligence tests."

CITY RESPONSIBILITY—Escanaba's municipal government is doing much toward the creation of a beautiful community.

Through its parks and forestry department it is planting shrubs and trees in public grounds, including tree strips along the streets. Trees are supplied at minimum cost, and where an unsightly tree is removed a new one is planted. Where there are no trees, these gaps are filled in with species which harmonize with those in the block or along that particular street.

The city has purchased a power mower, and where the property owner fails to keep the tree strip mowed, the city will do it. The city will also use the mower along streets in outlying undeveloped sections. A modern street sweeper was put in use last year, and all streets are now more neat in appearance.

Tree and shrub plantings in the parks has been stepped up. Lawns are in better condition than ever before.

Admittedly there are several pieces of city-owned property which should be improved. Heading this list might be the city-owned lots in the 300 block on Ludington street because they are so much in public view. The Sand Point area beyond the Lighthouse also needs attention for the same reason.

THAT OF THE PEOPLE—There is also a responsibility on the part of the citizens, but this is more difficult to define. It is the responsibility that comes with pride in your home and in your community, with the feeling that an untidy front yard and an unsightly house should be corrected for your benefit and that of your city.

While a dwelling may not be modern in appearance, it need not be dilapidated. A little effort can make a yard presentable. A few shrubs, a few flowers, and a lawn that is kept trimmed may entail some work but it is good for your health and your morale.

Shrubs and flowers are not expensive, and there is no cost involved in your own leisure-time work. Paint for your house is a matter of maintenance and will save you money in the long run. Looking at it from the dollar and cents viewpoint, the house of cheerful appearance, in a setting of flowers, shrubs and green lawn has a higher resale value. But the greatest satisfaction is in living in such a home.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—The inside story of why the House didn't vote on final enactment of the Patman Housing Bill before the Easter recess isn't a happy one—from the standpoint of home-seeking war veterans.

Here's what happened:

A joint conference of senate and house committees was called just before the Easter recess in a rush to get house approval of senate amendments. These amendments included restoration of $600,000,000 in subsidies to stimulate production of scarce building materials.

Held in the usual secrecy, the conference lasted all day in hope that the bill could be passed before house members left on their Easter holiday.

Soon after the conference got under way at 9 a. m., however, it became apparent that this was forlorn hope.

Four of the seven house conferees—Republicans Wolcott of Michigan, Crawford of Michigan and Gamble of New York, plus Democrat Brown of Georgia (all VAV congressmen)—served notice they would make a bitter-end fight against the $600,000,000 in subsidies, as well as the senate's amendment calling for a government-guaranteed market to producers of 200,000 pre-fabricated houses. Since pre-fabricated houses are produced on a mass basis, the senate considered it necessary to guarantee builders a market of 200,000 houses.

Wolcott, Crawford, Gamble and Brown weren't really opposed to this guaranteed market amendment, but used it as a compromising weapon to scuttle subsidies. In other words, they offered to back down on a guaranteed market if the other conferees backed down on subsidies—described by President Truman as the "heart" of the bill.

This proposition was flatly rejected by the remaining three house conferees—Representative Wright Patman of Texas, author of the original bill, Brent Spence of Kentucky and William Barry of New York (all Democrats). The seven senate conferees were also unanimously opposed. Including Barkley of Kentucky, Murdock of Utah, Taylor of Idaho, Mitchell of Washington, Taft of Ohio, Buck of Delaware and Capehart of Indiana.

—NIX ON SUBSIDIES—

Patman and Barkley urged, begged and cajoled with the four house objectors, but got nowhere. Finally they offered a compromise—to cut the subsidy provision from $600,000,000 to $400,000,000.

"We haven't time to quarrel here all day," Patman of Texas pleaded. "It will be too late if we don't reach an agreement soon. The house will recess for Easter in just a few hours."

However, the adamant four refused to budge an inch. They knew that as long as they stuck together they could prevent the bill from being submitted to the house.

"We are against subsidies in any form," Wolcott and his cohorts repeated over and over again. "We are against a billion, $400,000,000—or even one dollar."

At 3 p. m., after about six hours of bickering, it was decided that the senate conferees should depart and let the warring delegates try to work out an agreement alone. The seven senators were to be notified of their progress. Another hour passed. When no word came from the House conferees, several senators investigated and learned that the meeting had broken up with Wolcott and Crawford of Michigan, Gamble of New York and Brown of Georgia still refusing to compromise.

Finally the conference adjourned, the four VAV dissenters glowing with victory. Their colleagues are betting, however, that after hearing from their wavering constituents during the Easter recess, they won't come back so happy.

Note—"VAV" is the designation which veterans' groups are attaching to congressmen who "voted against veterans."

—EUROPEAN DIET—

Believe it or not, but Secretary of Agriculture Anderson's home economics bureau has declined to give out any more suggested diets equivalent to what the people of Europe are eating.

This doesn't represent the view of the bureau's boss, Secretary Anderson, because he is one of Washington's most vigorous food economists. However, bureaucrats will always be bureaucrats, and protected by civil service, frequently thumb their noses at bosses.

Meanwhile, here is a suggested day's diet totaling 1,500 calories (the European diet), prepared by Albert M. Goudiss, editor of Home Economists' magazine, "Forecast":

Breakfast—One orange, sliced; broiled mashed potato patty, cooked only with milk . . . no fat; one poached egg; coffee or tea with one teaspoon sugar, no cream; milk for children.

Luncheon—Fish, with vegetable and potato chowder (use no fat or flour); fruit or dessert; milk for children and adults.

Dinner—Chicken and vegetable pie with mashed potato topping; cole slaw (dressing made of evaporated milk, lemon juice, and spices); victory pie (deep dish fruit pie with no top or bottom crust—use apples and raisins, no sugar—spread cottage cheese over top); coffee or tea for adults; milk for children.

Note—If all the foods allowed in the meals are eaten, the individual will be provided with adequate nutrition—an abundance of protein, vitamins, and minerals. No food should be wasted and no meals omitted.

When a man knows the ropes of his business well enough he's seldom tied down

MAY OPEN NEW PLANT IN CITY

Fence Company of America Plans Expansion In Near Future

Harold Arnum, president of the Fence Company of America, told employees, who were guests of the company at a banquet last night at the Sherman hotel, that the company "is getting ready to open a new plant in the city" and promised that there would be some "real openings" for some of the employees. A new "incentive plan" for all of the company's employees will go into effect next week, he added.

Negotiations are under way, Arnum stated, for opening another plant here to manufacture prefabricated housing material but he declined to comment further on the plan.

Roy Overpack, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, congratulated both the fence company's management and employees on the fine spirit of cooperation they have shown, and Gust Asp, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce industrial committee, in a brief talk, told how the fence company chose to locate in Escanaba in preference to other Upper Peninsula cities which had offered it free rent, free taxes and other inducements.

The fence company head said that when they had gone into business in Chicago three years ago, their interest was in prefabricated houses but the fence they erected around a show home attracted more inquiries than the home itself, so they turned to the fence business.

The company is still the largest manufacturer of white cedar post fence in the country, Arnum stated, although it has had many imitators, and in Escanaba and surrounding communities it is spending about $90,000 monthly. Most of the money spent for the two inch cedar posts, he pointed out, represents earnings for labor.

About 75 of the plant's employees attended the dinner-gathering.

EAGLES BACKING FAYETTE PARK

Escanaba Aerie Adopts Resolution; Softball Team Planned

Escanaba Aerie 1088, Fraternal Order of Eagles, went on record Tuesday night in favor of the proposal to make the Fayette harbor area a state park, and a resolution was ordered drawn up in support of the plan.

The Eagles also voted to put an Eagles softball team in the Old Timers' league, and President George Williams appointed Arnold Johnson and Herman Croft to take charge of organizing the team.

Secretary Werner A. Olson reported that George C. Williams, Clark Williams and Roy Van Mill of Gladstone had deposited with him the necessary fee to each become a life member. There are two other members who now hold life membership in the Escanaba Aerie of Eagles.

Word was also received by the secretary that the state Eagles convention will be held June 13 to 16 at the Book-Cadillac hotel in Detroit.

ACT TODAY ON OLSON PETITION

Delta County Election Commission To Rule On Validity

The Delta county election commission will meet today at the courthouse in Escanaba to rule on the validity of nominating petitions filed Tuesday for Albert J. Olson, Republican candidate for county clerk.

Prosecuting Attorney J. Clyde McGonagle yesterday said that it had been impossible for the commission to get together yesterday because some members were out of the city. The commission is composed of the prosecuting attorney, the probate judge, county clerk and county treasurer.

Olson's petitions were rejected Tuesday by County Clerk J. Theodore Ohlen, Democrat, because the petition heading did not read "county clerk and register of deeds," he said. The petition heading named only the office of county clerk, and the register of deeds is combined with that office in Delta county.

Art Goulais, chairman of the Eighth avenue and had just crossed South 13th street when the child ran into the vehicle.

Delta county Republican committee, yesterday said that the petitions for Olson and other Republican county candidates were delivered to the county clerk's office by Harlan Yelland at Goulais' request. Mr. Yelland, Escanaba attorney, did not circulate the petitions, Goulais said.

When the county clerk said that Olson's petitions did not carry the proper heading, Yelland returned them to Goulais, who then took them to the clerk's office. This happened within a half-hour of the deadline for receiving petitions. Goulais said that he had not altered the petition headings, and said that Olson would be a slip candidate at the June 18 primary if his petitions were rejected by the election commission.

NAME DISTRICT FIRE FIGHTERS

Conservation Workers Ready For Start Of 1946 Season

Completing preparations for the start of the 1946 forest fire control season, the district conservation office at Escanaba yesterday announced the names of fire wardens and lookouts who will compose the fire fighting organization this year.

The early spring season is usually one of the most hazardous of the year, although the number of fires so far in the district has been few because of occasional rains. In Lower Michigan, however, the fire loss has been extreme, with a total of more than 50,000 acres burned over in one week earlier this month.

The names of the lookouts and wardens, together with their telephone numbers, is presented so that reports of unattended fires, requests for burning permits, and any other matters concerning forest fires may be directed to the following individuals or stations:

USE OF GAS ON INCREASE HERE

City Now Has A Total Of 2,515 Customers—New High

The city of Escanaba has more gas utility customers now than it has had since the plant was built—a total of 2,515—and at the rate new meters are being installed, there will probably be an additional fifty or more this year.

Average gas consumption rose from 137,000 cubic feet in March, 1945, to 167,000 in the same month this year, a new peak, Stanton E. Abrahamson, plant superintendent, said.

Part of the increased use is attributed to the fact wood for fuel has been difficult to get at times in the past several years and its cost has risen sharply. Another factor is the increased use of gas for water heaters.

Gas rates have remained the same here—its average cost being $1.35 per thousand cubic feet.

Although it was impossible to purchase meters for a time during the war years, new customers were "by passed" and charged a daily flat rate of 15 cents until meters were installed; however, meters have been available since this spring. Ten new installations were made here "since the frost was out of the ground," Abrahamson said.

One local consumer uses gas for all home purposes except refrigeration and he is now considering the installation of a gas operated cooling unit as well. In his opinion, gas is the "perfect" fuel, not only for cooking but for home heating, too.

Ten of the city's customers use gas refrigerators; the cost of operation is about the same as that for electric types.

GLADSTONE

PHONE 3741
Rialto Bldg.DAYLIGHT TIME
BEGINS SUNDAYMany Matters Considered
At Commission
Meeting

Gladstone will go on fast or daylight savings time next Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, it was decided by the City Commission in regular meeting this week. This time coincides with the hour that Escanaba and the rest of the county observe EST.

Consideration of bids for new city trucks was tabled until the next meeting. Three bids have been received from H. J. Norton, Elmer Beaudry and Ludington Motors.

The application for renewal of liquor license by the Gladstone Yacht club was approved.

It was voted to insure the Fourth Ward school building in the amount of $3,000. The building was recently acquired by the city from the school district.

Ten dollars was donated to the Crippled Children's Easter Seal drive.

City Manager H. J. Henrikson was authorized to purchase equipment for cutting roots from main sewers. Such rotary cutter, operated by a gasoline engine, will cost approximately $1,000.

A surplus of $7,761.11 was transferred to the equipment fund. Manager Henrikson and Mayor Fred Schram were authorized to attend an aeronautical conference at Lansing on May 3-4.

Gladstone Participates In Music Festival On Saturday

The Gladstone high school mixed chorus will sing at the Spring Vocal and Orchestra Festival in Escanaba Saturday. Other groups representing Gladstone high school are the Girls' Double Sextet and the Junior High Girls' Sextet. Soloists are Marilyn Bergman and Mary Waznick. Preparation for the event has been under the direction of Irving Johns.

The festival as usual is a non-competitive affair, in that no places will be awarded. However, an adjudicator will listen to and give instructive criticism to each group.

The prime interest of these festivals is to provide an incentive to high school students, allowing them to see what other high schools are doing and perhaps comparing their own accomplishments with those of other schools.

Participating schools are Kingsford, Iron Mountain, Gravenet, Eben, Norway, Negaunee, L'Anse, Rapid River, Escanaba and Gladstone. All schools have mixed choruses and girls' glee clubs. Six schools, including Newberry are sending orchestras which will perform individually from 9 to 10:15 o'clock Saturday morning. The vocal program will be from 10:15 to 12 noon and from 1 o'clock until 4.

Soloists and ensembles will perform in the morning. The Gladstone participants in this event will be heard between 9 and 9:30. The program and schedule for local participants follows:

9:00-9:10 Mary Waznick, soprano, "I Love Thee" (Greig).
9:10-9:20 Marilyn Bergman, alto, "Kashmiri Song" (Finland).
9:20-9:30 Junior Girls' Sextette, "The Green Cathedral" (Hahn).
2:48-3:00 Girls Double Sextette, "In a Persian Market" (Ketyby).
"Onward Christian Soldiers" (arr. by Swift).
3:00-3:12 Mixed Chorus, "Behold, I Show You a Mystery," "Behold, the Veil of the Temple was Rent in Twain," "As It Began to Dawn" (all taken from "Hail the Victor" by Wooler).

At the conclusion of the afternoon concert select singers from each school will combine to practice for the evening concert, the big event of the festival. The evening program will be announced later in the week. This is the first program of its kind since 1942 due to wartime restrictions on travel.

Fire early Wednesday morning damaged the home of Merellin Godfrey on Wisconsin at Fourth street to an extent unofficially estimated at $300. The loss to the building is covered by insurance.

A neighbor noticed smoke coming from the structure and turned in the alarm.

The blaze was centered in an unused room on the second floor of the house. A fireman said the blaze either started from defective wiring in that room or sparks dripped on the roof and then worked inside by burning.

4-H CLUBBERS DISPLAY WORK

Project Display And Style Revue Were Impressive

Young people from the rural areas of Schoolcraft county—members of various 4-H clubs of the area—"went to town" both figuratively and literally Wednesday, had a big time and showed to splendid advantage the good work they have accomplished through their home projects in the winter months just past.

There was no school in rural Schoolcraft county throughout the day and 4-H club members attending Manistique high school were also excused so they could attend all of the functions uninterrupted.

The morning hours were taken up with free movies provided through the courtesy of the Manistique - Schoolcraft Chamber of Commerce. The afternoon was devoted to a style revue in which club members passed in review at the Lincoln school auditorium clad in clothes they made for themselves. These items of clothing consisted of suits, party dresses and house dresses. Boy club members also gave demonstrations with some of the appliances they had made.

Hundreds of articles made by the members as their projects for which they are given credit, were on display. These consisted of bird houses, feed boxes, rope making machines, cribbage boards, chick feeders, foods, clothing, scrap books, topographical maps, pictures, plaques and scores of other attractive and useful articles.

This was, by far, the best 4-H club achievement exhibit shown in Manistique, according to the belief of Gladys Mercer, club leader.

CHANNING HAS HOT BALL CLUB

Railroaders Good Bet For First Division In NWM League

Channing, April 23—Baseball cynics who have been laboring under the opinion that Channing stepped out of its class when it decided to cast its lot with the Northern Wisconsin Michigan league can take their tongues out of their cheeks any day now.

This little whistle-stop of rail-roading dispute, by far the smallest of any of the eight towns represented in the circuit, may produce one of the biggest teams in the league. In this particular instance, "biggest" is to be interpreted as strongest.

Although you'll find this the consensus of the hot-stove boys who make Cuculi's tavern the town's baseball headquarters, it isn't strictly a local opinion. Take a straw vote of the other seven league managers and you'll find the Channing entry, two weeks before the season opens, is conceded a first division berth—that's anywhere between first and fourth place in the final standings.

PRACTICE TONIGHT

The Escanaba Bears baseball club will practice tonight at 5:30 o'clock at the city diamond in preparation for the opening of the NWM league May 5, Manager John Schwalbach has announced.

Joe Cuculi, on the mend after a rough time overseas with the army and Art "Lefty" Swanson, a veteran hurler, who are pooling their baseball knowledge as the "brains" of the Channing entry in the capacity of co-managers, are a little conservative. Both of them will settle for third place in the final tally. "Put Niagara on top, then probably Negaunee, Channing is good for third, at least. Not any lower—maybe higher," they agree.

Has 100 Per Cent Backing

Although the team is entered as Channing, it's actually a Sagola-Channing combination. The Sagola Township Athletic club is backing the team. Offering 100 per cent support, the committee is comprised of representatives of the Sportsmen's club, board of education, Legion, township board and business men, which indirectly involves everyone in Channing and Sagola.

Channing is not only out to prove that its entry will be a benefit to the league, but also to show that the league made a mistake by not inviting Channing years ago.

Channing has always had the reputation of turning out more natural athletes per capita than any surrounding town—with an accent on baseball. It's a hot baseball town. Right now there are 22 trying out for the team—most of them young, local talent. And in most positions Cuculi and Swanson are ankle deep in prospects.

Half Dozen Pitching Prospects

In the pitching department the Railroaders have a half dozen prospects, including Verses and Broom, a couple of prospects from the Marquette teachers' college. Others are Gustafson, Art Swanson, Harry Grondine and Charles Carey.

L. J. Burns and Steve Orto are first sackers. Harry Lindeman and Don Rouse are vying for second base. Royce Christian, one of the smoothest operators in the league, and Bud McGregor, are alternating, at shortstop, Pat Tobin is being used on third.

Outfield prospects include John Del Santo, Art Carey, Chick Meyers, Chip Lindeman and Bill Teszlewicz. And in the catching department are Don Carey, John Jeppson, Ralph Kramer and Fritz Lindeman.

When the season gets under way Cuculi and Swanson probably will be in a position to farm out a few players to the other clubs in the league.

"Yes, you can count on Channing. They'll be in" the Northern Wisconsin Michigan league.

BOMBERS PASTE 5 SOX HURLERS

Williams Draws Booming For Grounding Into 3 Double Plays

Boston, April 24 (AP)—The New York Yankees went into undisputed possession of first place in the American League today when they trampled the Boston Red Sox 12-5 before a crowd of 30,028 fans at Fenway Park.

The Yankees pasted five Red Sox hurlers for 16 hits with Dick Eteen grabbing hitting honors on three hits, two walks and three runs batted in.

Boston's Ted Williams drew boos when he grounded into three successive double plays after hitting a 400-foot triple in the fourth inning.

New York .010 403 040—12 15 0 Boston .020 201 000—5 10 4 Gumpert, Marshall (4), Wade (7) and Robinson; Hughton, Eaben (5), Butland (7), Brown (8), Ryba (9) and H. Wagner, Partee (9).

INDIANS 5, BROWNS 1

St. Louis, April 24 (AP)—Charley (Red) Embree pitched five-hit ball for the Cleveland Indians and an eighth inning uprising featured by Recruit Catcher Sherman Lollar's double with the bases loaded defeated the St. Louis Browns 5 to 1 today in a one-game abbreviated series between the American League clubs.

Lollar, most valuable player and leading batter in the International League, started the game in place of Frankie Hayes, whose string of 312 consecutive games as starting catcher was broken by Manager Lou Boudreau's decision.

Cleveland .000 000 050—5 7 0 St. Louis .000 000 001—1 5 1 Embree and Lollar; Galehouse, Kramer (8), Ferens (9) and Mancuso.

SINGLE SETTLES A'S

Washington, April 24 (AP)—Bench-riding Bingo Binks delivered a pinch-hitting single today which sparked an eighth inning rally as Washington's Senators defeated Philadelphia's Athletics, 4-2.

Binks' hit was made off Russ Christopher, Philadelphia relief hurler, with the bases loaded. It sent two runs home. A double by Stan Spence produced two more tallies in Washington's winning assault.

Philadelphia .000 000 011—2 6 0 Washington .000 000 048—4 7 1 Besse, Christopher (8) and Desautels; Scarborough, Haefner (9) and Evans.

Escanaba softball team managers are reminded that they have only until May 1 to submit their team rosters and player contracts to the Escanaba Softball association for the opening of the league season on May 6. A round of practice games will be played next week. Franchise fee is $10 per team for each half of the season, which includes the team's registration with the Upper Peninsula Softball association. The remainder of the money is used to pay umpire and scorer fees. The American league is expected to have at least 12 entries this season with the probability of eight or more in the National league. Still nothing yet regarding the Old Timers league.

WEDNESDAY'S SCORES

American League Cleveland 5; St. Louis 1. Washington 4; Philadelphia 4. New York 12; Boston 5.

National League Boston 10; New York 7. Brooklyn 11; Philadelphia 3. Pittsburgh 4; Chicago 3. St. Louis 3; Cincinnati 2.

International League Newark 6; Toronto 1. Jersey City 1; Rochester 0. Syracuse 11; Montreal 4. Buffalo 5; Baltimore 4.

American Association St. Paul 7; Milwaukee 3. Minneapolis 1; Kansas City 0. Toledo 7; Indianapolis 4. Columbus 2; Louisville 1.

Southern Association Chattanooga 9; Atlanta 2. Memphis 9; New Orleans 1.

The Escanaba Softball association has revised its layout for the lighted field area adjacent to the state fairgrounds. The original plans called for 750 foot frontage on the highway but because of the demand for industrial sites in that area 250 foot highway frontage was yielded and additional space was granted westward for the second diamond that will be installed later. The entire area will be fenced this year but the second diamond will not be added for another year or two. The association has adopted an admission scale of 12c for adults and 5c for children for league games this season. Doubleheaders will be included on all league programs.

In establishing admission fees for league games at the lighted diamond to defray league operating expenses, the association is not unmindful of an obligation to the Escanaba public to provide a percentage of its softball entertainment to the public without charge. League games played at other city diamonds will be free to the public and it is probable that arrangements will be made later for certain "free" nights at the lighted diamond. Public support of the association program has made possible the tremendous development of softball here and to continue to merit that support, the association must never restrict its entertainment to paying customers only.

Al Ness has been invited to enter his baseball club, last year's Escanaba Teensters, in the Menominee county Cleveland league. The club probably will be renamed this season. The Menominee county league will be reorganized Friday night at a meeting to be held at Stephenson. League teams invited include Menominee, Marinette, Wallace, Stephenson, Plover, Hermansville, Bark River, Perronville and perhaps one or two others besides Escanaba. Ness will decide in a day or two whether to enter the circuit but is favorably inclined. The circuit is not restricted to teen-agers.

Hit and Miss—The Escanaba Bears baseball club is due for some casualties. Most of the candidates reported with paunches that must be worked off. Paul Vardian will be assigned by the City Recreation department to handle the softball schedules this season, including the Escanaba association leagues and the playground leagues. More information on the U. P. Softball association's petition for direct affiliation with the national organization will be available when George Grenholm returns from Akron, Ohio, where he is attending a regional recreation meeting. Many of the bigwigs of Michigan softball will be in attendance.

CHICAGO RALLY NIPPED IN 9TH

Pitcher Sewell Drives In Winning Buc Tally In Eighth Inning

Pittsburgh, April 24 (AP)—Rip Sewell pulled the Pittsburgh Pirates out of a three-game losing streak today as he pitched and batted them to a 4-3 triumph over the Chicago Cubs before 6,287 paying customers.

Sewell, notching his second victory of the season, drove in the winning tally in the eighth inning with a scorching drive off Albie Glossop's glove.

The Bucs still had to choke off a Cubs rally in the ninth to win.

Score by innings: Chicago .000 002 100—3 9 1 Pittsburgh .110 100 01x—4 11 1 Bithorn, Chipman (3), Schmitz (5) and Livingston; Sewell and Camelli.

SEVEN FOR CARDS

Cincinnati, April 24 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals notched their seventh straight victory of the season today as they defeated Cincinnati 3-2 before a ladies' fayed crowd of 2,944.

The Reds, who have yet to win a home game this year, out-hit St. Louis 9-6 and, although Howie Pollet had three errors behind him and a bad eighth inning, he came out on top. Cincinnati used four hurlers.

Ewell Blackwell, the losing pitcher, made his major league debut as a starter.

Score by innings: St. Louis .000 000 000—3 6 3 Cincinnati .000 200 000—2 9 0 Pollet and Rice; Blackwell, Fox (5), Lambert (6), Hetki (8) and Mueller.

LEAD STILL TIED

Philadelphia, April 24 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers kept pace with the St. Louis Cardinals today by defeating the Philadelphia Phillies 11-3 for their seventh straight victory to remain in a first place National league tie with the Redbirds.

In winning this season's inaugural at Philadelphia, the Brooks made it 12 in a row at the Quaker city as they won all 11 games played here last year.

The Dodgers gathered 16 hits off four Philly pitchers. Score by innings: Brooklyn .103 015 100—11 16 0 Philadelphia .200 100 000—3 8 1 Higbe, Gregg (4) and Anderson; Hoerst, Johnson (3), Lopatka (6), Pearson (8) and Hensley, Semmling (8).

GIANTS LOSE SLUGFEST

New York, April 24 (AP)—Boston spoke into the first division of the National league today by taking a knock-down, drag-out slug fest from the New York Giants, 10-7, before 13,670 paying fans.

Successful home runs by Tommy Holmes and Ray Sanders off reliever Ace Adams in the fourth inning cemented the Braves margin after the clubs had taken turns sharing the lead in the first six frames.

Score by innings: Boston .000 021 340—10 14 3 New York .000 202 030—7 10 2 Wright, Hendrickson (8), Posedel (9) and Mast; Koso, Carpenter (7), Adams (8), Budnick (8), Fischer (9) and W. Cooper.

Hockey Franchise Sought At Los Angeles; Crosby And Topping In Venture

Los Angeles, April 24 (AP)—Movie Producer Tony Owen said today he had filed an application for a 1946-47 franchise in the National Hockey League on behalf of a syndicate consisting of Sportsman Dan Topping and Film Stars Bing Crosby and Randolph Scott.

"I sent a $10,000 check to league President Mevin (Red) Dutton about 10 days ago," Owen declared today. "We hope to hear from the league soon."

The bid was at least the second for a local franchise, Phil Henderson, general manager of present coast league hockey interests here, deposited $10,000 with National League governors at their meeting last February.

Hollywood Square Gardens, Inc., headed by Crooner Frank Sinatra, also has plans which include big league hockey in a mammoth indoor stadium—when construction problems permit.

TIGER PITCHING IS STILL TOPS

Five Star Flingers To Alternate As Game Starters

BY FRANK KENESSON Detroit, April 24 (AP)—Detroit Tiger pitching, which for four straight seasons has never been worse than second best in the American League, appears to be—as advertised—the stoutest single weapon baseball's defending world champions possess this season.

In their first seven games this year the Bengals called out five aces from their star-studded 12-man staff and their combined effort, which produced five victories, netted the exceptional earned run average of 1.29 a game.

Five times Tiger starters went the nine-inning distance, with Southpaw Hal Newhouse and Alton Benton each pitching two complete games. Newhouse and Paul (Dizzy) Trout each turned in a shutout.

Only once has Tiger pitching yielded more than a single earned run in a game and that was when the St. Louis Browns scored five untaunted runs in beating Virgil Trucks 7 to 6. St. Louis registered one earned run off Newhouse and one off Al Benton while the Cleveland Indians earned one marker off Stubby Overmire, and the Chicago White Sox one yesterday off Benton.

Newhouse, ace of the Detroit staff and the league's earned run leader in 1945 with a mark of 1.81, is off to a flying start with a pair of victories in which he rationed a total of eight hits and permitted only one base-runner to get as far as third.

Benton, who ranked second to Hal with a 2.02 earned run mark last season, allowed only three men to touch second in his first start this year, a 6 to 1 decision over the Browns. Two unearned runs cost him yesterday's 3 to 1 loss at Chicago.

Trout, whose 1946 debut was delayed because of an attack of influenza, blanked the White Sox on six hits in his initial appearance.

Trucks, in his second effort, a relief job against Cleveland, hurled 3 2-3 hitless innings after Overmire had stayed on even terms with Bob Feller for six frames.

Continuation of such stand-out pitching by the five flingers Manager Steve O'Neill plans to alternate as starters will leave little work for the rest of the staff, which includes such hurlers of starting calibre as Tommy Bridges, Les Mueller, Hal White and Rufus Gentry.

Bridges is within seven games of a lifetime total of 200 American League victories: Mueller hurled a pair of two-biters and three three-bit games a year ago; White won seven games for the Tigers in 1943 before going off to war, and Gentry was a 12-game winner in 1944.

Even relief man George Caster has had less than a full inning of work.

O'NEILL IN HOSPITAL

Detroit, April 24 (AP)—Manager Steve O'Neill of the Detroit Tigers arrived here today by plane from Chicago and entered Henry Ford hospital for observation of a knee ailment as the Tigers moved to St. Louis to open a two-game series against the Browns Thursday under direction of Coach Frank Shellenback.

O'Neill, who missed a week of the 1945 season because of an attack of gout, said that physicians here told him his present condition resulted from a recurrence of an injury 10 years ago to his left knee.

O'Neill said he would "just rest" here for a couple of days and rejoin the club when it returns to Detroit Saturday for a two-game series with Cleveland.

Following an examination at the hospital O'Neill went to his suite in a downtown hotel, where he plans to stay until Saturday. Meanwhile Shellenback prepared to send out Lefthander Hal Newhouse against the Browns Thursday in search of his third victory of the season. Hal a 25-game winner a year ago, whipped St. Louis 2 to 1 opening day and blanked Cleveland on two hits in his second appearance this year.

Virgil (Pete) Trucks is Detroit's probable pitcher against the Browns Friday.

CITY DOUBLES LEAD CHANGES

Vanlerberghe-W. Hanson Post 1261 Score In Tournament

Vanlerberghe and W. Hanson caused a reshuffling of the standings in the doubles division of the city bowling tournament Tuesday night by piling out a 1261 score to move into the leadership. Vanlerberghe rolled 561 and Hanson contributed a lusty 619 series which they pooled with 81 pins handicap.

Benard and Heino grabbed the fifth place position in the doubles with a 1211 series. Benard shot 531 and Heino 593, plus 87 pins spot for the duo.

The only change in the singles standings was registered by L. Peterson who pooled a 534 series with a 111 pins handicap for a 645 score that was good for fifth place.

Oberg's service sneaked into the tenth place in the five-man event with 2973, crowding the Kiwanis No. 2 team off the board. The Arcadians, who won the Classic league competition for the second half Tuesday night, were less fortunate in their tournament effort, rolling only 2738 with 312 pins spot, failing to get into the money.

Wayne U. Upsets Spartans, 8 to 7

Detroit, April 24 (AP)—Wayne University pulled the biggest surprise of the young college baseball season in Michigan here today by upsetting Michigan State's powerful baseball team 8 to 7 after trailing 7-5 in the eighth inning.

The Tartars put together three hits with a hit batsman for two runs in the eighth and produced the winning run with one out in the ninth when Shortstop Jim Newbacher singled through short took second on Mike Urdea's sacrifice and scored on Catcher Bill Collins' single to right.

Three Wayne pitchers, Andy Messenger, Don Brown and Jack Hoover held the Spartans to six hits while Wayne was collecting 14 off Bill Pace and Keith Steffee, of Michigan State.

George Ruttenbar and Jack Brellin, of the Spartans, and Newbacher, of Wayne, each hit a homer. Mich. State .203 010 010—7 6 2 Wayne .201 020 021—8 14 4 Pace, Steffee (4) and Fornari; Messinger, Brown (8), Hoover (9) and Collins.

PAUL ROBESON WINS ACCLAIM

World - Famous Singer
Appears On Town
Hall Program

More than 800 people had the privilege last night of hearing Paul Robeson in a concert which was probably the most outstanding musical event in the history of this city.

In a program distinguished for its artistry, Mr. Robeson presented a concert which completely captivated his audience, who called him back for seventeen encores. His magnificent voice, deep and warm and rich, filled the William W. Oliver auditorium, not only in the operatic excerpts, but in the intimate folk songs which comprised many of his encores.

Mr. Robeson's ability as an actor enables him to express the exact meaning of a song with clarity, fervor and taste. He is equally at home in English, French, Russian, Italian and Chinese.

His well-chosen program contained both the familiar and the unusual, Shakespearean songs and Negro folk songs, operatic selections from "Boris Godunoff," and patriotic songs of other lands, such as the Chinese anthem, "Arise and Fight for Freedom," "Songs of the Spanish Republic," and the perennial favorites, "Old Man River," "Water Boy" and "Deep River."

Lawrence Brown accompanied him ably at the piano and joined him vocally as well to make rhythmic duets of "Ezekiel Saw the Wheel," "Little David Play On Your Harp" and "Joshua Fought the Battle of Jericho."

At the conclusion of his program, Mr. Robeson stepped out of the singer's role to present an excerpt from "Othello," the last words of its tragic hero.

William Schatzkammer, pianist, appeared in two groups of numbers, playing with an effortless technique. His first selections included the works of Bach, Chopin, Liszt and Brahms. His second group, the modern compositions of Gershwin, Debussy and Scriabin, found greater favor with the audience, who called him back for two encores. Mr. Schatzkammer's interpretation of the polka from Shostakovich's satirical "The Age of Gold" ballet was brilliant and precise.

The concert presented last night by Paul Robeson will not be forgotten soon. And it is possible that it will be the finest musical event to be presented in Escanaba for quite a while. It seems incredible, but there were 150 tickets to Town Hall which were not sold last night. It is unfortunate that so few people were able to take advantage of the opportunity to hear one of the greatest voices of our time. It would seem to indicate a lack of interest on the part of the public, or a preference for second-rate entertainment.

Bessemer Farmers Buy Purebred Sires

Marquette—The Upper Peninsula Development Bureau announced the names of the first two farmers in 1946 to take advantage of the Bureau's revolving fund for the purchase of purebred tested sires and heifers.

They are Francis Koski and Ray Iverson, of Bessemer.

It is anticipated that orders this season—the third consecutive year the Bureau aided farmers in purchase of purebred sires through the revolving fund—will exceed 100, it was said in announcing the start of the program.

Although purebred bulls and heifers are purchased, whenever possible, from Upper Peninsula herds, the demand is too great and necessitates a purchasing trip in Lower Michigan. Claude E. Bishop, of the Development Bureau, and George McIntyre, manager of the farm experiment station at Chatham, will leave for downstate on or about May 12 for the purpose of procuring purebred sires for U. P. herds.

All animals are inspected by veterinarians before purchase and are insured from the date of purchase until delivery to farmers. Orders can be placed with county agricultural agents.

Briefly Told

Marriage License—A marriage license has been issued in Chicago to Marvin S. Johnson, 620 South 14th street, and Adeline VanHorn of Chicago.

Find Flying Squirrel—A large flying squirrel who had taken up residence in a tiny wren house was discovered yesterday by Richard Juetten, 2236 Lake Shore Drive, who received a sharp nip on the hand as he attempted to clean his birdhouses. The wren house, suspended on a long thin wire, has an opening about the size of a quarter. How the 6-inch squirrel managed to get in and out is a mystery, but maybe the housing shortage has something to do with it.

Order of Runeberg
The Order of Runeberg will hold its regular meeting at the Unity hall Thursday evening, beginning at 7:30. All members are urged to attend.

Dies In Detroit—Chester Roy, 50, former Escanaba resident, died at his home in Detroit Tuesday, according to a message received by a cousin, Mrs. Joseph Courier, 2011 15th avenue south. He is survived by his widow and six children.

Sharpshooter—Pvt. Donald H. LaCrosse of Wells recently qualified as a sharpshooter with the rifle while completing his basic training at Fort Bliss, Tex. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. LaCrosse of Wells and was inducted into the army Jan. 17, 1946.

Lift Load Limit—Normal loading is now permitted on Highway US-41 between Marquette and Menominee, it was reported yesterday from the branch office of the state highway department in Escanaba. Restrictions previously were lifted on all of US-2 in the Upper Peninsula.
